BERGMANN

What your project needs now.

That's me, the Bergmann C815. Maximum safety guaranteed: With my ocilated articulation and hydraulic stabilization, I always stay firmly on the ground. And on steep inclines, my parking brake ensures a secure hold. Maximum efficiency for your project: With my high performance and an impressive payload of 12 t, I set standards in my class. Comfort is my top priority: I enable you to work quickly while remaining comfortable - my spring-loaded and suspended front axle is easy on your back. The rotating operator's platform ensures that you always have the right perspective.

We save ourselves the large quantities of paper. So you can save weight.
